

The Sweet and Sour Story of Sugar

NOORDERLICHT

Sugar Illustrated

Carl De Keyzer

Following the steady growth in national income, Indonesia is changing rapidly. A new society has arisen on top of the remnants of Dutch colonial structures. Carl De Keyzer documented everything pertaining to sugar in present-day Indonesia, from Belgian chocolate stores to old sugar villages in decline. His work manifests the ambiguity between production and consumption, between tradition and modernity, and between the local and global economies.
